SECTION 1.

To the fullest extent allowed by state law, or as further provided, the Corporation shall indemnify any person who was, is, or is threatened to be made a named defendant or respondent in any action, suit, or proceeding, civil or criminal (a "Proceeding"), because such person, or a person of whom such person is the legal representative, (i) is or was a member of the local council Executive Board, a committee of the local council Executive Board, a subcommittee of a committee of the local council Executive Board, or an officer of the corporation; or (ii) while a member of the local council Executive Board, a committee of the local council Executive Board, a subcommittee of the local council Executive Board, or an officer of the corporation, is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director, officer, agent, or employee of another corporation or organization, to the fullest extent that a nonprofit corporation may grant indemnification to such a person under applicable law, without subjecting the corporation to any income or excise tax under the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, or the corresponding provision or provisions of any subsequent United States Internal Revenue law or laws; provided, however, that any right to indemnification from the corporation under this provision shall not extend to any matter as to which such person shall have engaged in wanton or willful misconduct in the performance or neglect of a duty owed to the corporation. Any right to indemnification under this provision shall be a contract right and shall include the right to be paid by the corporation expenses incurred in defending such proceeding in advance of its final disposition to the maximum extent permitted under applicable law. Any person who has requested an advancement of expenses under this provision and has not received such advance within 30 days of such request, may thereafter bring suit against the corporation to recover the unpaid amount of such claim and, if successful in whole or in part, shall be entitled to be paid also the expense of prosecuting such claim. In any such action, the burden of proof shall be on the corporation to prove the claimant is not entitled to such payment. The rights conferred herein shall not be exclusive of any other right which any person may have or hereafter acquire under any statute, bylaw, vote of the local council Executive Board or a committee or subcommittee thereof, agreement or otherwise. This provision shall not be deemed to limit any power or exclude any right of the corporation to provide any additional or other indemnity or right, or to maintain insurance or a similar arrangement for or on behalf of any person. If this provision should be invalid or ineffective in any respect, the validity and effect of this provision in any other respect shall not be affected.

Adopted this twelfth day of May, 2016

Scout Executive

Council President

The Executive Board updated the Bylaws in May 2020, to reflect the fact that TAC now serves girls. To achieve that, in two places in Article II, Section 1, the language "boys and young men and women" was changed to "youth". Apart from these changes, this version is current. - Dean Menegas, Council President 7/27/23
